The Good Cop

The City is a mess. Far too many of your fellow officers are on the take. Far too few even care about the people who have to live in this slowly rotting urban carcass. You've watched your co-workers, your superiors, and even the politicians take bribes, turn a blind eye, or worse. It's like their oaths and vows don't matter. It's like they don't know they have a duty, a higher calling, an obligation to truth, justice, and doing what's right.

The Dirty Cop

You may have started off clean and eager, but the bloom came off that rose pretty quickly. The only way to survive in the City is to look out for number one along the way, because no one else is going to. And so what if you skim a little off the top, shake an informant down for a few bucks, or have a price in mind to look the other way? Who's gonna stop you? You're pretty sure everyone else does it too, only way bigger. So long as you stay a small fish, taking little bites out of this rotten pie, you'll be just fine. Sock it all away for your retirement fund. Somewhere warm and sunny, where you can sit in the sun for hours and get this lifetime of filth off your skin.

Role Actions (+2)

Shake Down

When you want information or a bribe out of someone, roll+Risk.

On a 10+, you get what you want AND someone in the Scene mentions a Role worth talking to.

On a 7-9, you get some of what you want, but in order to get more, you're going to have to deal with one of the Roles you have a Hook with.

On a 6-, in either this Scene OR the next one you're in, things get violent. Either you or another Role in this Scene or the next will suffer at least 1 Injury. Work out with the Role and Director how that happens.

Bully with a Badge

When you abuse your authority, roll+Moxie.

On a 10+, no one questions you. Someone in the Scene is impressed by you and is willing to help you accomplish what you want.

On a 7-9, you get challenged on the spot, and it's going to get messy. The Director can choose 1:

- Introduce one of your Hooks into the Scene for free.
- Involve your Secret in the Scene.
- Involve one other Person or Role in the fight.

On a 6-, before the Movie is over, you'll have to deal with one of your Hooks based on what happened in this Scene.

Takes One to Know One

When you enter a social function or large gathering, ask the Director who else at the Location might also be dirty, corrupt, sleazy, or have something to hide. If you have a Hook with them already, take +1 to your next roll.

Friends in Sleazy Places

When you deflect blame or suspicion off of you and onto a Person or other Role, roll+Risk.

On a 10+, what you're saying seems reasonable ... at least for this Scene.

On a 7-9, what you're saying will be believed only if you prove it by doing something you don't want to do by the end of the Movie.

On a 6-, before the end of this Act, someone's going to make you pay for what you did in this Scene.

On a 7-9, choose 1:

On a 7-9, you and the Person or Role hatch a plan that you don't realize will hurt everyone involved.

On a 6-, the fight happens, and in order to avoid getting into too much more trouble, you tell a lie that spells trouble for you by the end of the Movie. (It might kill you.)

The Private Eye

You're a shamus, a sleuth, a gumshoe. It's your job to do the jobs that no one else wants, or solve the things that other people can't or don't want solved. It's not a glamorous life, but it's your life, and sometimes, that means bullets and dames, and other times you take seedy photographs outside seedier motels in areas of the City you don't want to be caught in, alive or dead. Maybe you're struggling from paycheck to paycheck, and your frequent detours to examine the bottoms of bottles and shot glasses isn't helping. The War Vet

You went over there and did what you had to do. It wasn't easy, and maybe you don't like talking about all of it, and maybe it's good to talk about some of it. The nice thing, if there is such a thing, is that war gave you a particular set of skills and the confidence to use those skills.

You can handle yourself in a fight, you know a thing or two about getting out of a jam, and they even taught you how to jump out of an airplane. Or how to hurl a grenade. Or kill a man in the jungle with a sharp stick and your bootlaces. But now you're back. And the lines between ally and enemy blur often. The rifle's out of your hand now, but that structure, that routine, that order, you miss it, and you can get it back. You'd do anything to feel like you know what you're doing.

- ☐ (3-Role Hook) You and these two Roles have been planning a crime for a long time. Today's the day you put that plan into motion.

The Politician

You're someone with a vision. You're someone who looks at the rundown buildings and the old roads and see not ruins, but opportunities. Sometimes this manifests as a ruthless set of power plays, sometimes it's truly magnanimous gestures. While nothing yet has stayed in your way for long, there is that possibility that you may face an impediment en route to your ultimate goal, be that Mayor, kingpin, Senator, or something more.

Role Actions (+2)

Of the People

When you're trying to deflect suspicion, blame, or trouble, roll+Moxie.

On a 10+, tell the Director which Role in the Movie you've shifted the blame to.

On a 7-9, you'll shift the blame onto a Role you have a Hook with, and they'll want to talk to you before the end of the Act.

On a 6-, not only are you acting MORE suspicious, you'll have to do something terrible in order to make things right.

Backroom Deal

When you need to bribe someone, roll+Risk.

On a 10+, both of the following are true.

- You gain leverage on someone you don't have a Hook with.
- You gain leverage on someone you have a Hook with.

On a 7-9, one of the above is true.

On a 6-, neither is true, and someone you have a Hook with is upset with your failed bribe attempts.

Lobbying Interests

Whenever you need to persuade someone, roll+Moxie.

On a 10+, they consider your offer and will get back to you with a positive answer in this Scene or the next.

On a 6-, news of your offer reaches the worst ears possible.

The Puppetmaster

When you set up at least one Role to take a fall or be a victim in your plans, roll+Brains.

On a 10+, your plans leave no trails back to you.

On a 7-9, there's one link back to you that involves a Role you have a Hook with.

On a 6-, not only is there a trail back to you, but someone's after you in a future Scene.

- ☐ (3-Role Hook) You and these two Roles have been friends since childhood, and today's the day you all do something dangerous or stupid to make yourselves wealthy or famous.

Role Actions (+2)

Know When to Hold 'Em

When you try to bluff your way out of trouble, roll+Moxie.

On a 10+, hold 2.

On a 7-9, hold 1. Spend hold to:

- Offer a +1 to another Role's roll before this Scene ends.
- Convincingly implicate a Role not present in this Scene.
- Convincingly implicate a Person not present in this Scene.
- Implicate a Role you have a Hook with.
- Gain information from a Role in this Scene you can use to your advantage later.

On a 6-, your bluff fails. Live with the consequences.

Know When to Run

Once per Act you can run out of a Scene to avoid trouble, but it will catch up to you by the end of the Movie. When you run, roll+Brains.

On a 7, 11, or doubles, you can get out of the Scene, but this will all come back to haunt you in the final Scene of the Movie.

On snake eyes, there's no getting out of this alive unless you give up everything AND implicate another Role.

On any other number, you can get out of a Scene if you (choose one):

- Implicate a Role you have a Hook with.
- Do or say something to complicate the lives of everyone in the Scene before you leave.
- Leave behind something that matters to you that can get you into trouble later.

Know When to Fold 'Em

Instead of Talking It Out, you can Gamble. To Gamble, roll 2d6.

If even, you're convincing and get what you want.

If it's odd, instead of getting what you want, ask to do a favor for the person, and it'll involve someone you have a Hook with.

If it's snake eyes, you're in deep shit, and either have to lose something that matters to you OR make sure someone you have a Hook with loses something that matters to them.

If it's doubles, take the result and roll again. All results stack.

Know When to Walk Away

When the heat is on, and you're in danger, roll+Risk.

On a 10+, make a clean getaway.

On a 7-9, the only way you're getting away is to meet someone you have a Hook with in your next Scene, and it won't go well for you.

On a 6-, there's no getting out of this without you Fighting It Out or taking an automatic 6- result to Talk It Out.

The Reporter

(For Lillian Cohen-Moore)

The first rule of journalism is to report the news, objectively, whatever it takes. The truth is out there, and people have a right to know. In a City as corrupt as this, there's a lot to tell them. Crooked cops, politicians in bed with mistresses, all kinds of criminals and their syndicates. Your editor sends you out to fill column inches and damned if you don't do it every time. Sometimes, you even make a deadline.

BELONGINGS (+2)

- ☐ A trusty notepad and pen
- ☐ An outfit for a night out on the town
- ☐ Boring casual clothes
- ☐ An outfit you wear as a "disguise" to blend in when you need to
- ☐ A well-maintained typewriter
- ☐ A regularly full flask of hooch
- ☐ A little black book of names and numbers that you shouldn't have
- ☐ A snub-nosed .22 (Gun 2 +short range +concealable) that fits in a purse or coat pocket
- ☐ Always enough pocket change for a phone call or a meal at the automat
- ☐ A set of light-anywhere matches
- ☐ A small home just outside of the City (Location)
- ☐ An apartment in a six-floor walkup uptown (Location)
- ☐ A card labelled "PRESS" for the brim of a hat
- ☐ A second-hand pocketknife (Knife 1 +sharp)

HOOKS (+2)

- ☐ You hope breaking the big story will finally get this Role to notice you.
- ☐ This Role encourages you to bend and break the law at any opportunity to advance your career.
- ☐ Is it time for this Role to step in front of a bus yet? Can you maybe push them into traffic?
- ☐ That Role? Pond scum. Lower than pond scum. Even thinking about them makes you sick.
- ☐ This Role is in awe of you, thinking you're spooky, or practically a wizard with what you're able to do.
- ☐ You wrote unflattering things about this Role, and they want payback.
- ☐ This Role is trying to sway you to write something flattering about them, even if it's all bullshit.
- ☐ This Role has a story for you that seems just too good to be true.
- ☐ This Role risks everything for you, and you never know what to say, but today you'll try and say something. It will go badly – you're not good at these sorts of things.
- ☐ (3-Role Hook) In a perfect world, you'd be married to this Role and employed by this other Role.
- ☐ (3-Role Hook) This Role is paying you to regularly write terrible things about this other Role. Today that relationship is exposed ended, possibly messily.

Role Actions (+2)

On the Record?

When you think someone is lying to you, roll+Brains.

On a 10+, the Role will tell you something true that persists for the rest of the Movie.

On a 7-9, you're partially right, but ... choose 1:

- Your editor has to straighten out the mess, and you'll have to have a difficult conversation with a Role you have a Hook with before the end of the Act.
- You've just put someone else in danger and you don't realize it. By the end of this Movie, a Role you have a Hook with will be in life-threatening danger.
- You've just put yourself in danger and you totally know it, but it's cool, you can handle it ... mostly. You'll have a dangerous encounter in your next Scene.

On a 6-, of course they're being honest with you. In fact, why don't you offer to help them?

The Fourth Estate

Whenever you use your job to get what you want, roll+Risk.

On a 10+, you get what you want, and it has a positive impact on the Scene.

On a 7-9, you can get what you want if you first agree to do something that will harm or end a relationship with a Role you have a Hook with.

On a 6-, a Role in the Scene is sick of you throwing your weight around and (they choose 1):

- Get rough with you to shut you up (take 1 Injury in a brief scuffle).
- Make your life worse for the rest of the Movie (the Director will offer you a terrible choice as a free Director Action).
- Threaten a Role you have a Hook with in an effort to shut you up (they can work with the Director to make that happen either in this Scene or the next).

The Truth Is Out There

When you follow a theory everyone else dismisses, roll+Moxie.

On a 10+, your lead works out, providing you with new information to use in either this Scene or your next Scene.

On a 7-9, your lead takes you right to a Role you have a Hook with.

On a 6-, you'll need more proof, and to get it, you'll have to convince a Role you have a Hook with to work with you. You will both regret this before the Movie is over.

On a Deadline

Whenever you make a quick decision, roll+Risk.

On a 10+, take a +1 forward to your next attempt at something.

On a 7-9, your rushing around tests a relationship you have with someone (a Person or Role), and the Director can either offer a terrible choice or bring someone new into the Scene for free.

On a 6-, your haste means you overlook something significant, and a Role you have a Hook with has to bail you out.

The Starry-Eyed Kid

Gosh, the City is really big! These buildings and streets sure do seem to go on forever in so many directions. And look at those lights. One day, that'll be your name up there. The star of stage and/or screen, that's you alright. This is swell! You saved up your money, packed one suitcase and hightailed outta that tiny town with their tiny dreams all the way here, to the big City, where you're gonna show 'em all. It doesn't matter if they tried to tell you how hard it can be. It doesn't matter that they warned you about how dangerous this can all get. Role Actions (+2)

Trusting Face

When you blindly follow someone because they sound like they're friendly, roll+Moxie.

On a 10+, you will end up in a terrible set of circumstances, but you'll narrowly avoid danger or Injury.

On a 7-9, you get in over your head and face a hard choice: either you or someone you have a Hook with will have to do something your momma wouldn't approve of, or else you're both going to get hurt bad.

On a 6-, you walk right into a dangerous situation that persists into your next Scene.

Folksy Wisdom

Instead of Talk It Out, roll+Risk.

On a 10+, whatever someone is telling you sounds like a terrible idea, but you offer an alternative that risks someone you have a Hook with.

On a 7-9, what they're saying doesn't sound so bad, but you should make sure someone else knows about this and can help you out, like a Dirty Cop or Private Eye or someone important.

On a 6-, gee whilikers, that sounds like a swell idea, and you can't wait to get started ... and tell everyone what you're doing.

Built Farm Tough

Ignore the first Injury you suffer.

Just Lucky I Guess

Role Actions (+2)

Another Fine Mess

Whenever someone influences or persuades you do anything, roll+Moxie.

On a 10+, take their deal and tell the Director how you're going to throw yourself into completing the task.

On a 7-9, accept the deal but there's a complication, pick one:

- You lose 1 of your Belongings in an unfair deal.
- A Role you have a Hook with is about to ask you do something potentially even worse either by the end of this Scene or at the start of your next Scene.
- Something you say gets misinterpreted, and you wind up in worse trouble for the rest of the Movie.

On a 6-, the Director will put you in a terrible situation and you'll have to choose between taking a fall or needing to make a deal with someone.

Patsy

When you find yourself caught up in someone else's plans and you don't know what to do, roll+Brains.

On a 10+, tell the Director which Role you have a Hook with that you're going to ask for help before the end of this Scene, then go do it.

On a 7-9, the Director will tell you which Role you have a Hook with that's going to help you before the end of this Scene, even though you don't want their help.

On a 6-, the Director can EITHER offer you a terrible choice OR set up something to pay off later as a free Director Action.

Who's the Stiff?

Whenever you meet a Person or Role for the first time, roll+Risk.

On a 10+, they believe you're just a regular person who couldn't possibly be a threat, and they go on about their business while you're standing right there.

On a 7-9, they mistake you for someone dangerous they know. They will immediately involve you in whatever they're doing.

On a 6-, they mistake you for someone they're afraid of. They'll change their plans because of you showing up. Or they'll fight you. Their choice.

Note: If they mistake you for someone else, those mistakes persist for the rest of the Movie.

Beginner's Luck

The first time you try something you've never done before, add +1 to the attempt.

The Socialite

You're not oblivious to what's going on around you, you know perfectly well that next weekend you're going yachting with Lance and his fiancé, and probably will spend your whole summer on the Cape. Your air is rarefied; your life is often a blur of cocktails and soirées. The coffers seem bottomless, and your hardest decisions stem from which course you want while you're at whatever restaurant. Some might call you spoiled, some might call you out of touch, but you're pretty sure that given the chance, everyone would jump at a chance to walk a mile in your designer shoes.

Role Actions (+2)

Privilege, Unchecked

When you throw money at a problem, roll+Moxie.

On a 10+, the problem seems to slip into the background ... for now.

On a 7-9, your largesse earns you a new friend who will (you choose one):

- Get you into trouble that you can't spend your way out of.
- Implicate you into something they're tangled up in.
- Beg you to help them out ... just this once.

On a 6-, your profligate spending has attracted unwanted and immediate attention. The Director can bring someone into the Scene for free.

The Butler Could Do That

You have a butler. The butler ... (choose one):

- Is a distinguished War Vet who retains their service weapon (Gun 2 +well-maintained).
- Is the tireless victim of all your abuse. Should they die, you take a -1 to all rolls for the rest of the Movie.
- Is well connected in the City. A Person at a Location is their family member or lover.

You can order your butler to handle any task you don't want to, and you treat any information they gather as though you heard it personally.

Swine Before Pearls

When you feel your wealth and status aren't being appreciated, roll+Brains.

On a 10+, a Role in this Scene appreciates you so much that you get something you didn't know you wanted.

On a 7-9, a Role in this Scene appreciates you enough to bring you into a problem they're having so you can solve it.

On a 6-, your wealth IS appreciated ... but only because a Role and/or a Person now plans to rob you before this Movie is over.

Life of the Party

Whenever you're at a big gathering of people, roll+Risk.

On a 10+, tell the Director how you're making sure people pay attention to you.

On a 7-9, something you say or do puts you on a collision course with the Crime AND one Role you have a Hook with.

On a 6-, you get yourself into hot water and have to have an uncomfortable conversation with someone you have a Hook with.

The Disgraced Doctor

Losing your license was not the stoppage of your career that the Medical Board thought it would be. Taking your shingle down off the big blue box you called a clinic did nothing to halt you taking care of others. Whether that's a god complex or something noble, you continue to work with patients as needed, only a phone call or suture away.

BELONGINGS (+2)

- ☐ An outfit you fail to keep clean
- ☐ A folder of plans and conspiracies about how you lost your license
- ☐ The outfit you expect to be buried in
- ☐ A clean set of scrubs

HOOKS (+2)

- ☐ Your carelessness cost a family member of this Role their life. They don't know you were responsible, but the guilt is eating you up.
- ☐ This Role is willing to bankroll your future, but first they're going to ask you to do something terrible.
- ☐ You love this Role, and they won't even give you the time of day.
- ☐ You have no doubt that this Role would absolutely benefit from some surgery. You keep trying to persuade them.
- ☐ Years ago you botched a procedure on this Role. Everyone except this Role notices.

- ☐ (3-Role Hook) One drunken night, this Role came to you and said they'd love to look like this other Role. They were joking. You thought they were serious, and today's the day you show them how you'll make it happen.

Role Actions (+2)

Lay on Hands

When you attempt to heal other peoples' wounds, roll+Brains.

On a 10+, the wounded Role can recover from Injury with no problems when the Director takes the Fade to Black Action.

On a 7-9, they recover but (choose one):

- Their wound will reopen by the end of the next Scene they're in.
- They will pass out at the worst possible time later in this Movie.

On a 6-, they don't recover, you've made a mess of things, and the Role is now bleeding regularly all over the place for the rest of the Movie.

Take Two and Call No One in The Morning

When you assist someone using your medical knowledge, roll+Risk.

On a 10+, the Role takes a +1 to their next roll.

On a 7-9, you provide information but (choose one):

- It gets you both into trouble before the end of the Movie.
- Someone has overheard what you said, and it bites you in the ass later in this Act.
- Someone has found out about what you can do, and your life gets very complicated in your next Scene.

On a 6-, someone comes to see you right away, and the situation is dire for at least one of you.

Am I Good Person?

When you use your medical knowledge for personal gain, roll+Moxie.

On a 10+, tell the Director how your knowledge is going to help you.

On a 7-9, you realize that in order to get what you want, you have to talk to another Role, and they'll either make you a risky offer OR put a high price tag on what you want.

On a 6- your attempts at personal gain attract the attention of a Role you have a Hook with, and they end up getting involved more than they'd like.

Basically, Run

In any Scene where you're pretending to know less than you do, take a +1 to any one roll in the Scene.

NAME

Choose a name from the list below, or create your own.

Dorothy, Johnny, Claire, Rosemary,
Carlos, Ike, Herman, or Ruth.

GOAL

- ☐ To become even more famous, regardless of the cost
- ☐ To eliminate whomever you see as competition
- ☐ To get enough money or fame to go record music "that really matters"

+0, -2, -1 | +1, +0, -1 | +1, -1, -1 | -2, -1, +2

The Musician

You've got the voice of an angel. Or you play with talent you got in a deal with the devil. Either way, your melodies hold the keys to heaven and forbidden treasures. And you know it. Whether on stage in some smoky room or on someone's arm, you're well aware and quite comfortable with everyone getting a little whiplash and eye strain from checking you out. Maybe you've still got dreams of making it big someday, maybe those dreams faded out like the trumpet's last solo. It doesn't matter, you're going to play until you can't go another beat, and dammit, people are going to listen until the very last note.

Role Actions (+2)

Three-Ring Circus

When you use your fame to get what you want, roll+Risk.

On a 10+, it works, and you'll get what you want with minimal fuss.

On a 7-9, you can get what you want but first (choose 1):

- You end up making a promise you can't possibly keep to a Role in this Scene.

On a 6-, your celebrity backfires on you, and you're stuck doing something you don't want to do instead.

Your Biggest Fan

Create a new Person for any Location in play. They can do each of these things once per Movie:

- Give you +1 on a roll in one Scene at that Location.
- Take the blame for something you did. It will cost them everything, maybe their life.
- Provide you either a gun (that's somehow involved with the Crime) (Gun 2 +noisy) or money (their life savings).

Down to the Crossroads

Start this Movie either (choose 1) incredibly wealthy or incredibly popular, but take -1 to every roll you make in the Final Act of the Movie.

+2, -1, -1 | +1, -2, +0 | -2, +1, +2 | +0, +0, +1

The Attorney

Justice may or may not be blind. The scales may or may not be balanced. You do the hard work in this City, making sure the guilty are punished and the innocent go free. But the definitions on 'guilty' and 'innocent' seem to change day by day and minute by minute. Graft and rule-bending are as common in your job as legal briefs and precedents.

BELONGINGS (+2)

- ☐ An outfit you wear when you want to win in court
- ☐ Clothes someone bought you on the best day of your life
- ☐ The outfit you expect to be buried in
- ☐ Clothes you think someone else would like on you.
- ☐ An expensive briefcase/attaché that you can sell for money in a pinch
- ☐ A standing reservation at one Location
- ☐ A slush fund of "legal fees" you've skimmed off the top from cases

- ☐ (3-Role Hook) You only went to law school to prove to these two Roles that you weren't the little kid they picked on when you were growing up.
- ☐ (3-Role Hook) You're exactly the person these two Roles need to talk to in order to pull off "the perfect crime."

Role Actions (+2)

You Can't Handle the Truth

When you need to intimidate someone, roll+Moxie.

On a 10+, tell the Director how you threaten them to go along with you but only until the end of this Act.

On a 7-9, they will agree to help you during this Scene but either (their choice) betray you at the end of the Act OR betray you at the end of the Movie.

On a 6-, they say no, and things will either escalate into a fight OR they'll talk to someone you have a Hook with, and a fight will happen because of that conversation.

Objection!

At the start of play, roll 1 die. If you roll an even number, you may re-roll any 2 rolls you make in this Movie. If you roll an odd number, you only get 1 re-roll. You must use whatever the new roll's value is.

I'd Like to Present This into Evidence

Add one Fact to any Person or Location in the Movie, so long as that Fact benefits you and complicates things for someone else in this Movie.

Treat Them as Hostile

When you talk to, interrogate, or threaten someone for the first time, add a +1 to any Talk It Out rolls.

Role Actions (+2)

Shoot the Place Up

When you threaten a Role with violence, roll+Moxie.

On a 10+, you can arrange for violence to happen before the end of this Scene OR the end of the Act.

On a 7-9, before the violence can happen, you need to convince someone you have a Hook with to be a part of it. It'll be a tough sale, and it'll cost you something.

On a 6-, someone's going to rat you out.

Run These Streets

Anytime you're able to entangle a Role in something against their will, roll+Brains.

On a 10+, make them an offer they can't refuse.

The Celebrity

It's not hard to become famous. You do one thing, sleazy or otherwise, and people want to put cameras in your face while asking you for your opinion. The hard part is keeping that spotlight on you, because you do better in direct light. Keeping yourself relevant is practically a full-time job in itself. It's a good thing the City offers so many opportunities for you to pop up here and there, for good or ill, because you don't want to imagine going back to a world where no one knows you, or worse, where no one cares about you.

BELONGINGS (+2)

- ☐ A very stuffed wallet or purse
- ☐ An outfit no one would expect you to wear so well
- ☐ An outfit for a night out on the town

- ☐ This Role despises you for your fame.
- ☐ You will kill this Role for the gossip you mistakenly think they're spreading about you.
- ☐ This Role has information (photos, film, news, etc.) about you and could go public at any minute. It will ruin you if they do that, so today you're going to have to stop them by any means necessary.
- ☐ This Role is related to you, and only you know about it.

Role Actions (+2)

PR Meltdown

If you use your fame to get what you want, roll+Risk.

On a 10+, it works but only for this Scene.

On a 7-9, you can get what you want but first (choose 1):

- A Role in this Scene recognizes you and asks a favor that will get you into trouble.
- A Person or Role in this Scene mistakenly believes you're in the Scene for a reason you aren't and acts accordingly.
- Have a conversation with one of the Roles you have a Hook with, and they're going to offer to "help" you for a price.

On a 6-, your celebrity backfires on you, and you're stuck doing something you don't want to do instead.

I'm in It for the Fans

When you use your attractiveness, sexuality, or physical attributes to get what you want, roll+Risk.

On a 10+, choose 2 from the list below.

On a 7-9, choose 1:

- The other Role or Person will help you accomplish 1 thing in a future Scene so you can get what you want later.
- In order to get what you want, you'll have to set up this other Role or Person to take the fall.
- The other Role or Person lies to you, but you believe them.
- The other Role or Person swears they'll help you, but first you have to help them with a Role they have a Hook with.

On a 6-, your advances are spurned, and the other Role or Person has to go talk to a Role you have a hook with to straighten things out. Things will NOT go well for you.

I'M IN IT FOR THE ART

When you take an opportunity to be dramatic, even when the situation isn't helped by it, roll+Moxie.

On a 10+, your acting changes how one Role in this Scene feels about you, in a positive way.

On a 7-9, your acting changes how one Role in this Scene feels about you (in a negative way) AND they can ask for your help in a problem they're having.

On a 6-, not only does your drama go unappreciated, but every Role in this Scene starts actively hating and discrediting you for the rest of the Movie.

The Ex-Con

Life in the big house made you hard. You're not carved out of cookie dough, you're steel now – strong and cold. You went in, and maybe you did it (or didn't) do it, but you're out now, and you have no intentions of ever going back in. Prison wasn't a picnic; it wasn't a walk in the park. You saw things and did things that people wouldn't believe, but you did what you had to do to survive. Now the City welcomes you with open arms of asphalt, but you can't help noticing that this could just be one more prison for you.

Prison Economy

Before play begins, choose one Person at a Location. This Person was inside with you and is maybe even your old cellmate. You can see them any time during the Movie and ask for one of the following (choose one):

- An untraceable gun (Gun 2 +short range +concealable).
- A meeting with another Role that happens parallel to the next Scene (a free Meanwhile Director Action).
- Enough money to bribe a Role to do something dangerous on your behalf.

Thug Life

When you use your prison experience to get what you want, roll+Risk.

On a 10+, someone in the Scene agrees to help you, but you need to pay them back before the end of the Act.

On a 7-9, they'll ask you to do something first to prove yourself EITHER in this Scene OR the next Scene you're in, and it's going to suck for you.

On a 6-, you get in WAY over your head, and at least one Role in this Scene ends up injured.

Dead Man Walking

When you're injured, take +1 ongoing for the duration of the fight.

Yard Time

Ignore the first 2 Injury you suffer in the Movie.

The Girl / Boy Friday

You are always there to help. You're always there to be involved. You love to help. You love to be right in the thick of things. Sure, it's not always cheerful and sunny. Yes, it can be dangerous. But the point is that you're there to help, to lend a hand, to be a shoulder to cry on. One day you might be pouring coffee, the next you're hiding a body. Role Actions (+2)

Attention to Detail

When you help another Role Check It Out, roll+Brains.

On a 10+, treat any information you get as though both you and the other Role heard it simultaneously.

On a 7-9, any information you get will put you in danger in your next Scene OR a Role you have a Hook with is put into danger because you of course tell them what you've found out.

On a 6-, the information you get is bogus, but you think you're helping when you take a big risk.

What's the Worst That Could Happen?

When you take a risk in order to help someone else out, roll+Risk.

On a 10+, everything's fine ... for now.

On a 7-9, in order to have things work out, you'll have to (choose 1):

- Risk something important to you (The Director will ask you to risk something important to you as a free Director Action)
- Involve someone else into the Scene (The Director will ask you to involve a Role you have a Hook with as a free Director Action)
- Endanger a Role you have a Hook with (The Director will harm someone or set something up for later as a free Director Action).

On a 6-, tell the Director the worst thing you could say or do in whatever situation you're in, then say it or do it.

Danger-prone Daphne

Anytime you Check It Out, immediately roll+Moxie.

On a 10+, you overhear something important about another Role.

On a 7-9, you mishear something, and you get a Role you have a Hook with into deep trouble because of it.

On a 6-, a Role or Person in the Scene gets tough with you to ensure your cooperation. Take 1 Injury and listen to what they have to say.

You Know Just Who Can Help

Anytime you have a chance to tell the police what's going on, roll+Brains. On an even number, tell a Dirty Cop. On an odd number, tell a Good Cop. If there are no police in the Movie, substitute 2 Roles you have Hooks with.
